

I do not feel that all VRS's should be capable to interchange with each other. Consumers have the right to pick which VRS service they prefer just like hearing consumers do with a telephone company. Also a hearing individual cannot purchase a name brand cell phone but obtain a contract to use the cell phone through another company. Sorenson developed the equipment and should have a right to distribute it and control how it is used. Thank you for your time.